Subject: RE: Frazier v. USSC Complaint - Docket No. 2010-163-W

Mr. Butler,

ORS was provided with responses to its data requests served on USSC at 12:39 this afternoon. ORS will clearly not have sufficient time to both review and analyze this information and prepare any relevant supplemental direct testimony for filing with the Commission today; as directed under the supplemental scheduling order. I am therefore requesting that ORS be afforded an additional two days to file supplemental direct testimony in this matter. Although ORS cannot guarantee that the information provided by USSC will lead to the filing of any supplemental testimony by Mr. Morgan, we would appreciate the additional time requested to determine if such supplemental testimony is warranted. Based on the lack of any additional pleadings or information having come to light since Mr. Morgan filed direct testimony on June 1, 2010, ORS does not intend to file any supplemental testimony if not afforded this additional time.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.
